

New Parks Director

We welcome Craig Larsen as Parks Director for the City of Redmond. A Seattle native, Craig graduated from the University of Washington. He was Director of Parks and Recreation at both King County and the City of Lynnwood and brings almost 12-years of experience at the director level. "I have a strong belief and commitment to Parks, Recreation, and Arts programs," Craig stated. "They are essential for a high quality of life. Our job is to ensure that these services continue, and that we are prepared for the changes ahead." And then, with a smile, "I'm thrilled to be in Redmond."

Counselor In-Training Program

If your teenager enjoys working with younger children, being outside and having fun while learning valuable leadership and job skills, they should investigate the Counselor In-Training program. Youths 13 to 16 years old will be trained to assist Day Camp leaders and work with children in Redmond's Summer Day Camp programs located at Farrel-McWhirter Park, Anderson Park, and the Old Redmond Schoolhouse Community Center. Counselors In-Training must complete a class session in order to be eligible to participate during the summer. T-shirt included and provided first day of camp.

Instr: Tami Cobb. Fee: $10R/$12N.
